

Oilers Defeated by White Sox; Abbotts Look Good in Defeat

Dick Kerr Holds Oilers in Check—the Score Is 10 to 4.

CLEVELAND FEATURES

Barney Gets Three Hits Including a Triple* and Two Doubles.

BY LARRY DAILEY.

ALTHOUGH John Collins' White Sox reserves took the long end of a 10 to 4 score from the Tulsa Oilers yesterday, the local club played the best ball of the seven spring exhibition games. Good fielding despite four errors and timely batting by the Oilers sent the fans home "to dinner" in a pleasant frame of mind despite the reversal.

Eight hits were gathered off the delivery of Dick Kerr, White Sox pitcher, who was the only American league pitcher to win two games in the big classic. The Abbotts were slugged the ball with consistency and power; several nifty fielding plays cutting off hits.

Cowan, big Californian, essayed nifty duty for six innings and was touched for 12 hits and seven runs during that time. The blond right hander looked good at that, showing a pleasing assortment of hooks and spears. In his eighth inning, he worked the last three innings, holding the White Sox out for two hits and three runs in that time.

With hitting and sensational fielding, Cowan, yesterday's game, making it the best of the season. Of the 11 hits made by both clubs, 10 were for extra bases, including seven doubles and three triples.

Barney Cleveland, Oiler third baseman, and George Lee, White Sox catcher, shared the day's batting honors, each getting three blows in four trips to the plate. All of Cleveland's hits went for extra bases, including two doubles, a triple, and a home run. Lee also got two play away, his other smack being good for a sack.

Notes of the Oilers

Yesterday's game marks the final appearance in Tulsa of a major league club this season. The Minneapolis association club is here next Saturday and Sunday, with the possibility that they may play Monday and Tuesday.

"Matty" Fitzpatrick, Western league umpire of last season and who is retained this year, umpired yesterday's game and got away well. Graham's fielding was all that could be desired. The big fellow used his noodle in the fourth when he threw out Kerr at third on Margie's grounder.

Larmore's stop and throw of Collins' sharp grounder over the infield base was a sensational bit of fielding.

Most made a nice catch when he grabbed Cowan's drive off the bank in left field in the fourth inning.

Connolly had two unusual putouts yesterday. Both were on runners caught between bases, one at third and one at second.

Therney had a unique assist when a slashing grounder hit him on the arm and bounded to Larmore in time to permit him to throw out the runner at first base.

Johnny Conlan looked well out in center field, handling three chances.

ATHLETES OFF TO ENTER OLYMPIAD

Vanguard of American Athletes Sails for Antwerp.

NEW YORK, April 7.—"Tole Sam" started his big drive to win the seventh olympiad today with the sailing of the American hockey and figure skating teams for Antwerp, Belgium.

America's first olympic expeditionary force was made up of 11 hockey players, two figure skaters and Cornelius Fellows, president of the International Skating Union, who will manage the American experts of ice sports in Belgium.

The party sailed on the Poland, the vessel that carried the entire American olympic team to Stockholm for the sixth renewal of the games in 1912.

Mat Miles in Party. Nathaniel W. Miles and Miss Theresa Weld, both of Boston, are America's entrants in the single and double figure skating events. Those skaters hold the national doubles championship. Miles is also well known as a lawn tennis player.

The hockey players making the trip are: Goal, Raymond L. Bonney; Pittsburgh, point, Leon Tuck; Boston, cover point, Frank Cohen; St. Paul, left wing, J. Conroy; St. Paul, right wing, Joe McCormick; (captain); Pittsburgh, rover, Bob Dracy; Pittsburgh, center, George G. Goran; Boston, the advanced goalie Cyril Weidenborner; St. Paul, goal; J. E. Fitzgerald; St. Paul, point or cover point; Larry McCormick; Pittsburgh, center; and Frank Smyth, Boston, forward.

New Manager Chosen. Cornelius Fellows was chosen manager of the ice teams at the 11th hour on account of illness in the family of Roy D. Scooley of Pittsburgh, which prevented him from accompanying the party.

The hockey and skating events at Antwerp are scheduled to commence April 20 and the American entrants expect to arrive in Belgium on time to practice three or four days before entering competition.

Barbare Seriously Injured. ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 7.—Walter Barbare, shortstop of the Pittsburgh baseball club, was seriously injured this afternoon when he was caught in the jaw by a line drive from the bat of a player in the eighth inning. The accident occurred in the eighth inning. Barbare's jaw was fractured in two places and several teeth were knocked out. He will be out of the game for several weeks. It was said at a local hospital to-night.

Robins 6, Yankees 5. CHESTER, S. C., April 7.—R. H. E. Brooklyn Nationals 6 10 2. New York Americans 5 9 2. Smith, Cadore and Krueger and Taylor; Quinn, Collins and Hannah.

"Seb" Terry Sold to Cubs. CHICAGO, April 7.—"Seb" Terry, infielder of the Pittsburgh Nationals today was purchased by the Chicago Cubs.

"Talking about things that help people," said Mrs. Agnes Holland, of 1219 E. Easton street, Tulsa, Okla., in an interview recently. "Orgate is doing more good than any medicine or treatment I have ever known in my time. I had indigestion and chronic stomach trouble so bad for ten or twelve years. I continued that I could hardly eat anything without having trouble afterward, a lingering pain in my right side. I suffered terribly after eating, from pain in my stomach and gas that would rise and cause cramping spells. I had so little appetite that I used to dread for meal time to come because it meant that I ate anything at all I would have to force it down. My nerves were so up-set that I didn't have the patience to do my own housework. Slight noises would startle me, and I was in a very much run-down condition. I kept losing weight and strength and finally began to feel despondent because nothing I tried helped me.

"My husband who had used Orgateone treatment with such good results advised me to try it for my troubles.

"I took Orgateone treatment faithfully according to directions and I hadn't finished the second bottle before I had been feeling much better than I had been for several years. I have steadily improved until now, my appetite is so strong I can eat almost anything I want. My digestion is greatly improved so I don't have any more trouble with gas and the pains in my stomach and side are almost a thing of the past. I can now do any kind of work that I ever did without my nerves being hurt a bit. In fact, I feel much better generally and am going to continue the treatment for my case was a very severe one and I want to be sure that I am entirely cured before stopping the use of this grand remedy for stomach sufferings.

Orgateone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa by Ross E. Getman's Rexall Store exclusively, under the personal direction of a special Orgateone representative. Other agents are the Rexall Stores, West Tulsa, Wood-Crown Drug Store, Sapulpa, and the Central Drug Store, Okmulgee. Adv.

DAILY DOPE

Larry Dailey

Rule makers of baseball added more trouble to the already overburdened athletes when they thought of the "dead ball" and put it in the books. The "dead ball" rule provides that when a pitched ball hits a batsman's bat when the batsman makes no attempt to hit the ball, that the ball is dead and that there will be no play on it if it falls and no strike called if it falls on the batter's head.

Think of the worse the harassed indicator holders will have when a ball hits a batsman's head and the pitcher claims it was accidental. Already, in exhibition games, much trouble over the "dead ball" rule has arisen, and some real arguments may be expected when the championship hunt gets under way.

Having taken the lead in other things the women are now showing the way to us of the stronger sex, in the matter of sport. The first golf tournament of the Tulsa Country club was the women's handicap, played yesterday.

With boxing today denatured of most of its primitive brutality there is still one other reform needed. That is the abolishment of the forcing boxers to make ringside weight in championship contests, a common custom in this bout. Remember Joe Gans, one of the greatest in the game? Well, they ruined the wonderful negro lightweight by forcing him to make ringside weight; ruined him as a boxer and broke his health so that he died before he had lived the span allotted to a human.

Boxers often are forced to forego eating a solid meal two days before a fight in order that they make ring.

side weight and not forfeit a match or money. Wornout over the making of ringside weight has caused many a boy to fight under his normal ability.

Ringside weight making saps the vitality and morale of a boxer, as much or more than taking punishment in a ring encounter. Let's do away with that practice.

Sporting fans, if you want to glimpse a hundred of the cleanest, most likely looking young athletes you ever saw, take a few hours off and journey to Lee Field where the Tulsa high school track candidates are working, and to Kendall field where the athletes of that school train. It will well be worth your time.

While neither the school nor college have participated in interschool meets each will be represented by good teams this season. One is convinced of that by looking them over.
